BLB&G Partner Mike Blatchley Speaks at PLI Program "Securities Offerings 2026: A Public Offering from Start to Finish"

November 25, 2026

BLB&G Partner Mike Blatchley spoke on a panel titled "Ethics, Due Diligence and the Offering Process" as part of Practising Law Institute's "Securities Offerings 2026: A Public Offering from Start to Finish" program on November 16. Mike examined the ethical considerations surrounding due diligence, securities offerings, and underwriting. He also addressed liability provisions and remedies under the Securities Act, discussed the role of participants in the offering process, and highlighted potential ethical issues in the underwriting process.

Mike specializes in securities fraud litigation and has been instrumental in recovering billions for institutional investor clients through landmark cases, including In re Allianz Global Investors U.S. Litigation and In re Wells Fargo & Company Securities Litigation. Routinely recognized in the market for his outstanding securities litigation work, Mike has been named to Benchmark Litigation's "Under 40 Hot List," selected as a leading plaintiff financial lawyer by Lawdragon, and recognized as a "Super Lawyer" by Thomson Reuters. He has written numerous articles addressing securities litigation and investor rights and frequently presents to pension fund professionals and trustees concerning legal issues impacting their funds.

© 2026 Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossmann LLP All Rights Reserved.