Brittney Balser

Associate, New York
212.554.1467
brittney.balser@blbglaw.com

Brittney Balser is an associate practicing out of the New York office prosecuting securities fraud, corporate governance, and shareholder rights litigation on behalf of the firm's institutional investor clients. Brittney is a member of the New York County Lawyers Association, where she serves on the Supreme Court and Abortion Rights Joint Task Force.

She is a member of the firm's case development and client advisory group, in which she, as part of a team of attorneys, financial analysts, and investigators, counsels public pension funds and other institutional investors on potential legal claims. In addition to her casework, Brittney is a member of the firm's Diversity Committee, as well as a member of Beyond #MeToo: A Working Group on Corporate Governance, Compliance, and Risk. Comprised of diversity-inclusion experts, litigators, and academics, B#MT is dedicated to understanding the root causes of workplace harassment, discrimination, and misconduct and making corporate America a better and more inclusive place for all of us to work.

Prior to joining the firm, Brittney was an associate practicing broad-based litigation encompassing white collar defense, internal investigations, civil litigation, and FINRA arbitrations at Bracewell LLP. Brittney is a graduate of Notre Dame Law School, where she was president of the International Law Society and served as the managing notes editor for the Journal of Legislation.

Education

- Notre Dame Law School, 2018, J.D., cum laude, Dean's List
- Duke University, 2015, B.A., Political Science

Admissions

- New York
- United States District Court for the Southern District of New York
- United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York

Publications

- August 23, 2022 - "Five Years After #MeToo Goes Mainstream" by Rebecca Boon and Brittney Balser Published by The Review of Securities & Commodities Regulation

© 2024 Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossmann LLP All Rights Reserved.

- September 27, 2021 - "The Importance of Private Securities Litigation as a Complement to 'Worn Out' Regulators" by Scott Foglietta and Brittney Balser published in the New York Law Journal

Events

- September 13, 2024 - BLB&G Counsel Jonathan Compretta and Associate Brittney Balser to Speak on GAPPT Trustee School Panel, “The Current State of Securities Litigation”
- May 1, 2024 - BLB&G to Host FBC CLE Event on “Dynamics of Effective Institutional Monitoring”
- March 15, 2024 - BLB&G Celebrates Women’s International Legal Efforts at NCYBA’s 5th Annual International Law Conference on the Status of Women
- October 20, 2023 - BLB&G Partner Rebecca Boon and Associate Brittney Balser Play an Integral Role in Beyond #MeToo Working Group Senior Level Workshop
- September 12, 2023 - BLB&G Associate Brittney Balser to Speak on GAPPT Trustee School Panel, “What Happened to This Bank? An Investor’s Perspective on Bank Failures, Contagion, and Fraud”
- March 24, 2023 - BLB&G Celebrates Women’s International Legal Efforts at NYCBA Conference
- November 3, 2022 - BLB&G Partner Rebecca Boon and Associate Brittney Balser Serve on Planning Committee for Beyond #MeToo Working Group Panel, “#MeToo and Athletics: Where We Have Been and Where We Must Go”

© 2024 Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossmann LLP All Rights Reserved.