Jerry Silk is "Principal For A Day" at the Elizabeth Barrett Browning High School in the Bronx

April 6, 2005

"PENCIL" – Public Education Needs Civic Involvement in Learning – was founded in 1995 to develop meaningful civic involvement in the New York City public schools. Through a variety of initiatives and system-wide projects, PENCIL creates a critical bridge between the civic community and the school community.

Firm partner Jerry Silk was “Principal For A Day” on April 6, 2005 at the Elizabeth Barrett Browning High School in Bronx, New York. To learn more about PENCIL and the outstanding work that it does, visit their website or call 646-638-0565.

© 2024 Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossmann LLP All Rights Reserved.