Jeroen van Kwawegen Discusses Securities Class Actions at New York City Bar Conference

March 14, 2018

BLB&G Partner Jeroen van Kwawegen was a featured speaker at the New York City Bar Association's 6th Annual Securities Litigation Enforcement Institute on Wednesday, March 14, 2018.

The conference provided a comprehensive overview of recent trends, developments and cutting-edge issues in securities litigation and enforcement. The panels include prominent securities litigators, senior in-house counsel at major financial institutions and corporations, nationally recognized trial lawyers, jury consultants, and economists.

Mr. van Kwawegen was joined by an esteemed panel of legal experts who took a statistical look at recent trends in securities case filings.

A senior member of the firm's Corporate Governance Litigation team, his practice also focuses on the fiduciary duties of boards of directors and senior executives, shareholder activism, and regulatory compliance. In addition, Mr. van Kwawegen has prosecuted a variety of securities class actions on behalf of large institutional investors, including numerous matters relating to the credit crisis and disputes regarding the sale of residential mortgage-backed securities. For his professional achievements, he has been recognized as a New York Super Lawyer and a New York "Rising Star" by Thomson Reuters, and a leading practitioner in his field by Legal 500 US.
