

Benchmark Litigation Names Hannah Ross One of Top U.S. Women Litigators for Tenth Consecutive Year

August 8, 2023

BLB&G Partner Hannah Ross has been recognized for the tenth consecutive year by Benchmark Litigation as one of the nation's top women litigators. The annual Top 250 Women in Litigation publication honors women who have made impactful strides in litigation and earned the hard-won respect of both peers and clients. According to Benchmark, Hannah and the other honorees are among "the most distinguished women in the world of litigation" and are "recognized as top players in their respective fields."

Hannah has been a key member and leader of trial teams that have recovered billions of dollars for investors. In addition to her litigation responsibilities, Hannah devotes a significant part of her practice to initial case evaluation and counseling the firm's institutional investor clients on potential claims. She is an integral part of many of the firm's initiatives, assisting in overseeing the firm's Global Securities and Litigation Monitoring Team, serving as Chair of the firm's Diversity Committee and Co-Chair of the firm's Forum for Institutional Investors and Women's Forum, and serving on the Corporate Leadership Committee of the New York Women's Foundation. She is also one of the senior partners at the firm responsible for client development and client relations.

Hannah is widely recognized by industry observers for her professional achievements. Most recently, she has been named one of Crain's 2023 "Notable Women in Law" and recognized as being a "notable practitioner" in the New York - Litigation: Securities: Plaintiffs category by leading industry ranking guide Chambers USA.
