

BLB&G Partner Jeremy Robinson Named to Law360 2024 Securities Editorial Advisory Board

March 21, 2024

BLB&G partner Jeremy Robinson has been named to Law360's 2024 Securities Editorial Advisory Board. The board, comprised of thought leaders from across the securities arena, provides feedback on Law360's coverage of securities-related matters and shapes future coverage.

Jeremy is an experienced securities litigator and fierce advocate for investor rights who has dedicated his career to fighting corporate misconduct. He has been involved in prosecuting many high-profile securities cases and has obtained some of the largest investor recoveries in history. For example, Jeremy was part of the team that recently achieved a significant trial victory for investors in the Fannie Mae/Freddie Mac Senior Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement Class Action Litigations, No. 13-mc-01288 (D.D.C.) ($812,050,000 jury verdict, including interest).

He has been recognized as one of the "500 Leading Plaintiff Financial Lawyers" in America by Lawdragon and one of the top-rated securities litigation attorneys in New York City by Thomson Reuters' Super Lawyers. He also was recently named a "Litigation Star" by Benchmark Litigation.
