

Hannah Ross Participates in PLI's Securities Offerings 2016 Seminar

March 11, 2016

BLB&G partner Hannah Ross was a featured speaker in the Practising Law Institute's Securities Offerings 2016: A Public Offering: How it is Done seminar on March 11, 2016 at the PLI New York Center in Manhattan. She joined an esteemed panel of other legal experts to discuss the basics of securities offerings within the framework created by the Securities Act of 1933, providing a unique perspective on the topic as a plaintiffs' attorney.

Ms. Ross is involved in a variety of the firm's litigation practice areas, focusing in particular on securities fraud, corporate governance, shareholder rights and other complex commercial matters. She has over a decade of experience as a civil and criminal litigator, and as a key member and leader of trial teams that have recovered billions of dollars for investors. Ms. Ross is widely recognized by industry observers for her professional achievements. Named a "Future Star" and one of the "Top 250 Women in Litigation" in the nation by Benchmark, she has earned praise from Legal 500 US for her achievements, and is one of the "500 Leading Lawyers in America," part of an exclusive list of the top practitioners in the nation as compiled by Lawdragon.
