

National Law Journal's "Plaintiffs' Hot List" Features BLB&G as a Top Plaintiff Firm Four Years in a Row

October 22, 2007

As a firm described as using the law to "keep companies honest," BLB&G was once again named to the National Law Journal's "Plaintiff's Hot List," an annual listing of the top plaintiff's law firms in the country, for the fourth consecutive year. According to its review, BLB&G "claims more than $12 billion in recoveries during the past five years" and "has been helping to open new fronts against corporate malfeasance by going after self-dealing in mergers and executive compensation."

BLB&G is one of only four firms nationwide to be named to this list each of the past four years.
