

Global Pensions Names BLB&G "Class Action Law Firm of the Year" for the Fourth Year in a Row

March 22, 2010

For the fourth year in a row, BLB&G was named "Class Action Law Firm of the Year," by Global Pensions magazine. The award, which was presented at a black-tie ceremony in London's Grosvenor House Hotel, was the culmination of feedback from 9,000 readers of Global Pensions, a UK based international pension publication, and a distinguished panel of international judges made up of key decision makers from pension funds and pension consultants.

This prestigious award recognizes "excellence in service" to the pensions industry. BLB&G has been consistently honored an international leader in the field of securities class action litigation. Since its founding over 25 years ago, BLB&G has successfully tried several of the largest and most high-profile civil fraud cases in history, recovering over $20 billion on behalf of its institutional investor clients. Unique among its peers, the firm has obtained four of the ten largest securities fraud class action recoveries in history.
