

"SCAS 50" Ranks BLB&G the Top Securities Firm in the Nation Once Again

June, 2014

The law firm of Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossmann LLP ("BLB&G") has once again been ranked the #1 securities litigation firm in the United States.

According to data compiled by ISS's Securities Class Action Services ("SCAS"), BLB&G again topped the "SCAS 50" rankings, obtaining nearly $4 billion in recoveries for investors in 2013 – more than any other firm in the nation.

SCAS has compiled the "SCAS 50," its annual report of the top firms prosecuting securities litigation in the U.S., for over a decade. Every year since the list's inception, BLB&G has been at or near the top of the rankings – often with the highest total recoveries, the highest settlement average, or both.

BLB&G founding partner Max Berger on the "SCAS 50" recognition:

"We are very pleased to be atop the SCAS list again. It is particularly gratifying because the results reflect the rigorous investigation, analysis and commitment we dedicate to our cases and clients. Of course, we recognize that these achievements cannot be possible without the commitment of our clients, who are intricately involved in every step of the litigation process, and who demonstrate real leadership in stepping forward to prosecute these cases and hold corporate management accountable to its shareholders."
