

Law360 Names Salvatore Graziano a "Securities MVP"

November 23, 2016

As part of its annual series recognizing an “elite slate of attorneys” nationally, Law360 has once again named Salvatore Graziano one of its 2016 “Securities MVPs.” This is the third time in 4 years that Mr. Graziano has been named a Legal MVP by Law360 in recognition of his work “securing hard-earned successes in high-stakes litigation, complex global matters and record-breaking deals.”

Law360 will profile Mr. Graziano’s recent achievements in a forthcoming special feature as part of the series.

A managing partner of the firm, Mr. Graziano is widely recognized as one of the top securities litigators in the country. He has served as lead trial counsel in a wide variety of major securities fraud class actions, recovering billions of dollars on behalf of institutional investors and hedge fund clients. Over the course of his distinguished career, Mr. Graziano has successfully litigated many high-profile cases, including most recently Merck (Vioxx) ($1.062 billion); Schering-Plough Corp./ENHANCE ($688 million); General Motors ($300 million); and MF Global ($234 million).