

Benchmark Again Names Salvatore Graziano One of the “Top 100 Trial Lawyers” in Nation

August 1, 2017

Benchmark Litigation has once again named BLB&G partner Salvatore Graziano to its exclusive “Top 100 Trial Lawyers” in America. The list recognizes a group of national “elite trial strategists” who have been selected following an extensive six-month review of their career achievements, as well as intensive peer-and-client reviews.

Mr. Graziano, a former federal prosecutor and widely respected civil litigator, has long been recognized by Benchmark as a New York “litigation star” and as one of the country’s top trial lawyers by numerous other industry observers. With over 20 years of experience, he has recovered billions of dollars for investors litigating a number of major securities fraud class actions on behalf of institutional investors and hedge funds nationwide.

Benchmark Litigation is compiled by the publishers of leading financial news magazines Institutional Investor and Euromoney and identifies the leading U.S. trial attorneys and firms at the local and national levels. Focused exclusively on the U.S. litigation market, the publication’s rankings and editorials are the result of extensive interviews with private practice lawyers and in-house counsel.
