

BLB&G Again Named One of Top Securities and Class Action Practices in the Nation by Law360

January 14, 2019

Following a review of over 750 submissions with “an eye toward landmark matters and general excellence,” Law360 has selected BLB&G a winner of its “2018 Practice Group of the Year” series in two categories – “Securities” and “Class Action.”

This is the fifth time BLB&G has been so honored, among only a handful of plaintiffs' firms recognized alongside the top corporate defense firms in the country for “wins and major deals that resonated throughout the legal industry in the past year.” As part of the series, Law360 will profile BLB&G in feature articles for each category, highlighting its successes in both areas of practice.
