

New York Law Journal* Announces Katie Sinderson as 2020 Rising Star

June 2020

BLB&G Partner Katie Sinderson was selected for The New York Law Journal's 2020 “Rising Stars” competitive list of the most promising attorneys under 40. During her nearly fifteen years at BLB&G, Katie has represented clients in securities class actions in courts throughout the country, recovering nearly $4 billion for investors during that time. Katie recently resolved a multi-year litigation arising from SunEdison Inc.’s spectacular rise and eventual failure and bankruptcy for $74 million for investors, as well as a litigation against fuel-card issuer FleetCor for $50 million for investors.

The winners will be recognized in the New York Law Journal’s upcoming Professional Excellence magazine and honored Oct. 27, 2020 at the New York Legal Awards at Marriott Marquis in New York City.
