June 1, 2022

BLB&G Partner Scott Foglietta has been honored by Law360 as a "Rising Star" in securities litigation for his remarkable work on behalf of the firm's institutional investor clients. Law360 writes, "Scott R. Foglietta of Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossmann LLP has played a role in securing several large recoveries for investors, including $480 million in a case against Wells Fargo and $210 million against Salix Pharmaceuticals Ltd., earning him a spot among the securities law practitioners under age 40 honored by Law360 as Rising Stars."

In the profile, Scott shares how he is motivated by holding corporate wrongdoers accountable and helping people, many of who are members of union pension funds, recover losses their funds may have suffered as a result of a company's fraudulent conduct.

"It's a group of folks that are near and dear to my heart because I have a lot of family members that were part of unions and relied on their well-earned pension funds to have a comfortable retirement. To see these folks getting taken advantage of and losing money — nothing to me is more motivating than the opportunity to try to help them recover that."
