

BLB&G Announces Elevation of Three Senior Counsel

January 24, 2025

BLB&G is proud to announce that Aasiya Glover, Daniel Meyer, and Eric Riedel have been promoted to Senior Counsel of the firm. The promotions are effective as of January 1, 2025.

“We congratulate Aasiya, Dan, and Eric on their well-deserved promotions,” said John Rizio-Hamilton, Co-Head of the Securities Litigation Department. “They are outstanding lawyers with a deep commitment to preserving market integrity and ensuring corporate accountability.”

“Aasiya, Dan, and Eric are exceptional lawyers who bring creativity and grit to hold corporate wrongdoers accountable on behalf of our institutional shareholder clients,” said Executive Committee member Jeroen van Kwawegen. “They have each earned this well-deserved promotion and we look forward to their future accomplishments.”

Aasiya Glover practices out of the firm's New York office and prosecutes securities fraud, corporate governance, and shareholder rights cases for institutional investor clients. She is involved in an ongoing case against Meta Platforms and played a key role in cases involving Qualcomm and Boston Scientific.

Daniel Meyer is a member of the corporate governance team in the firm's Delaware office. He currently represents institutional clients in litigations against Coinbase, Centrus Energy, and Astra Space. He has also contributed to significant cases involving Walmart, TD Ameritrade, and United Airlines. Previously, Daniel clerked for the Honorable Andre G. Bouchard in the Delaware Court of Chancery.

Eric Riedel is a member of the corporate governance team and based in the firm's New York office, where he prosecutes corporate governance and shareholder rights litigation for institutional investor clients. He is a key player in the Credit Suisse breach of fiduciary duty case and has worked on cases involving Sirius XM, Walmart, R1 RCM, and Limelight.

