

BLB&G Partners Hannah Ross, Jeroen van Kwawegen, and Jim Harrod Named to Lawdragon's 2025 “500 Leading Global Litigators” List

July 25, 2025

Lawdragon has named BLB&G Partners Hannah Ross, Jeroen van Kwawegen, and Jim Harrod to its 2025 “500 Global Leading Litigators” list, recognizing attorneys who tackle complex cross-border disputes and stand at the forefront of their practices. This year marks the debut of all three partners on the list.

Jim is head of the firm's Global Securities and Litigation Monitoring Group and was a lead partner in the securities class action against Perrigo, in which the firm secured a $97 million recovery for a class of investors who purchased Perrigo stock on the New York Stock Exchange or on the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange.

Jeroen leads BLB&G's work representing European institutional investors in shareholder litigation, including securities class actions, and is a member of the firm's Global Securities and Litigation Monitoring Group. He is currently leading the derivative action under Swiss corporate law concerning Credit Suisse's collapse as a result of several trading scandals.

Hannah is deeply involved in BLB&G's Global Securities and Litigation Monitoring Group and regularly prosecutes shareholder actions against non-U.S.-headquartered companies. Most recently, she has litigated successful actions against Allianz (Germany), Novo Nordisk (Denmark), and Luckin Coffee (China).
