

Law360 Profiles 2025 “Titan of the Plaintiffs Bar” Salvatore Graziano

June 5, 2025

BLB&G Partner Salvatore Graziano has been profiled by Law360 as a 2025 “Titan of the Plaintiffs Bar” for his outstanding achievements in securities litigation.

The profile highlights Salvatore’s 30-year career in securities litigation and the early challenges he faced transitioning from criminal prosecution. Despite the hurdles, his dedication to proving the merit of his cases has established him as a highly trusted and reputable litigator, culminating in notable victories in high-profile investor suits against Macquarie, Facebook, and Nvidia.

Salvatore credits the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 with transforming his practice by encouraging large institutional investors to step up as lead plaintiffs—a shift pivotal in redefining his legal goals and achievements. He emphasized his unwavering passion for securities litigation, driven by the rewarding success of advocating for investors’ interests.

|

It’s a bit of a cliché, but you have to love what you do...I just continue to be determined to prove the merit in our cases. Achieving that success is very rewarding.