

BLB&G Partners Hannah Ross, Rebecca Boon, and Katie Sinderson Named to Crain's 2026 “Notable Women in Law”

February 23, 2026

BLB&G Partners Hannah Ross, Rebecca Boon, and Katie Sinderson have been honored in the 2026 edition of Crain's “Notable Women in Law,” which highlights their leadership, legal excellence, and impact made across the legal community.

Hannah is a senior partner and Executive Committee member of the firm. Under Hannah’s leadership, the firm has achieved record-breaking recoveries, including over $2 billion for 35 institutions in the Allianz Structured Alpha Funds litigation and a historic $1 billion recovery for investors in the securities class action against Wells Fargo. She also serves as co-chair of the firm’s Forum for Institutional Investors and Women’s Forum and on the Corporate Leadership Committee of the New York Women’s Foundation.

Rebecca has been litigating securities fraud and shareholder rights actions for more than 17 years, recovering billions of dollars for the firm’s institutional investor clients. She has advanced equality in the workplace by co-founding the Beyond #MeToo working group and leading landmark recoveries that have resulted in important social change among industries. Rebecca received a Lifetime Achievement Award at the New York City Bar Association’s 5th Annual International Law Conference on the Status of Women in 2024 and co-leads BLB&G’s Women’s Committee.

Katie advises and represents BLB&G clients in securities fraud actions, leading teams that have recovered billions of dollars for investors harmed by fraud and corporate malfeasance. In addition to her litigation duties, Katie serves as co-chair of the Federal Bar Council Securities Litigation Committee and a frequent guest lecturer at Columbia University and Practising Law Institute’s “Expert Witness” programs.
