BLB&G Partners Anya Freedman and Jonathan Uslaner Named to Legal 500 US Elite 2027 Rankings

November 19, 2026

BLB&G Partners Anya Freedman and Jonathan Uslaner have been recognized as top-tier attorneys in the Legal 500 US Elite 2027 rankings. They join a select group of leading Los Angeles practitioners honored for their work in commercial disputes litigation. The guide recognizes legal professionals handling significant and complex matters at regional powerhouses across the nation.

Anya is based in BLB&G's Los Angeles office and leads the firm's Fiduciary and Governance Advisory Group. She advises institutional investors—including public pension funds, Taft-Hartley funds, and asset managers—on fiduciary law, governance, and portfolio monitoring, equipping them to pursue strategic litigation to recover losses resulting from fraud and other corporate misconduct.

Jonathan represents institutional investor clients in class and direct actions, with a track record of securing record-breaking settlements in high-profile cases, including Bank of America ($2.425 billion) and Wells Fargo ($1 billion). Recognized as a leading voice on class actions and federal securities law, Jonathan contributes articles to Pensions & Investments and SACRS Magazine and a recurring column for Reuters. He is an active member of the ABTL and the Federal Bar Association's Los Angeles Chapter and Securities Law Section.

© 2026 Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossmann LLP All Rights Reserved.