

Sal Graziano Discusses Subprime Mortgage Meltdown at PLI Program

September 12, 2007

BLB&G Partner Sal Graziano was a featured speaker at the Practising Law Institute ("PLI") program entitled, "The Subprime Mortgage Meltdown: Who, What, Where and Why—Investigations & Litigation," which was held on September 12th, 2007, in New York City.

As a featured faculty member at the event, Mr. Graziano discussed current litigation issues relating to the subprime mortgage meltdown, including the potential parties involved in such cases, as well as decisions in noteworthy cases that have already been passed by the courts.

Mr. Graziano is an experienced trial attorney and has played a leading role in a number of major securities fraud class actions, several of which were cases against prominent accounting firms. Recovering over $780 million dollars over the course of his career, some of his more prominent accomplishments are his prosecution of cases against PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Raytheon Company, MicroStrategy, Inc., Arthur Andersen LLP, and i2 Technologies, Inc.

Where:

New York, New York