

Sean Coffey Discusses Judicial Developments at the 35th Annual Securities Regulation Institute

January 23, 2011

Former partner Sean Coffey participated as a featured panelist at the 35th Annual Securities Regulation Institute, which was held January 23-25, 2008, at the Hotel del Coronado in Coronado, CA.

Joining Mr. Coffey on the panel entitled, “Judicial Developments and Private Litigation,” were the SEC’s general counsel Brian Cartwright, the SEC’s former General Counsel Giovanni Prezioso, securities professors James Cox and Donald Langevoort, and defense attorney Michael Young. The panel discussed scheme liability, pleading issues after Tellabs and Dura, and transnational securities class actions.

Where:

Coronado, California