

Sal Graziano Discusses Securities Litigation after Tellabs at ILEP Conference

April 10, 2008

BLB&G partner Salvatore Graziano participated in the "The Continuing Evolution of Securities Class Actions" conference, which was sponsored by The Institute of Law & Economic Policy (ILEP) and held on April 10-11, 2008 in Naples, Florida.

Mr. Graziano was a member of the panel entitled, "Trans National Issues & Pleading After Tellabs," discussing the Supreme Court decision in the Tellabs case and its impact on securities litigation.

Mr. Graziano is an experienced trial attorney whose practice focuses primarily on securities fraud class actions. He is also one of the partners who oversees the Firm's Subprime Litigation Practice Group, which serves to protect and vindicate shareholder and consumer rights arising from the mortgage and mortgage-based security debt crisis. He is currently lead counsel in investor class actions against subprime mortgage originators Fremont General Corp. and New Century Financial Corp.
