

Making Sense of the Financial Services Reform Act

$WebCastSeriesText$

Wednesday, September 15, 2010 - 2pm

This webcast presentation addressed the likely effects of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act on the regulatory landscape, corporate governance practices, financial reporting and accounting, among other topics. Our panel included BLB&G Partner Salvatore Graziano and Peter J. Henning, Professor of Law at Wayne State University Law School and columnist for The New York Times (Dealbook "White Collar Watch"), where he follows issues involving securities law and white-collar crime.

The panel discussed the Act's potential impact on public companies and investor protections, and what that means for institutional portfolios.

Click here to view the recorded webcast.

Related Professional

- Salvatore J. Graziano