

Sal Graziano Discusses the Future of Securities Litigation

June 16, 2011

BLB&G partner Sal Graziano participated as a speaker at the American Constitution Society's (ACS) 10th Annual National Convention, which was held June 16-18, 2011 in Washington, D.C. He joined other legal experts on the panel discussing "Dodd-Frank and the Future of Securities Litigations" on Friday, June 17.

With over fifteen years of experience, Mr. Graziano's practice focuses primarily on securities fraud class actions. He is one of the partners who oversees the Firm's Subprime Litigation Practice Group, which serves to protect and vindicate shareholder and consumer rights arising from the mortgage meltdown and subsequent financial crisis. Mr. Graziano is currently serving as the President of the National Association of Shareholder & Consumer Attorneys.
