

James Harrod Participates in PLI's Securities Offerings 2019: A Public Offering from Start to Finish

October 25, 2019

BLB&G partner James Harrod participates in the Practising Law Institute's "Securities Offerings 2019: A Public Offering from Start to Finish." Specifically, Mr. Harrod speaks to "Ethics, Due Diligence, and the Offering Process." on the segment."

With nearly two decades of experience prosecuting complex litigation in federal courts, Mr. Harrod's practice focuses on representing the firm's institutional investor clients in securities fraud-related matters, with over a billion dollars obtained on behalf of investor classes. In connection with his representation of institutional investors, he is a frequent speaker to public pension fund organizations and trustees concerning fiduciary duties, emerging issues in securities litigation and the financial markets. Mr. Harrod is also recognized as a New York Super Lawyer for his securities litigation achievements.