

Katie Sinderson Speaks on PLI Panel, “Securities Litigation 2021: From Investigation to Trial”

March 29, 2021

On March 29, 2021 BLB&G partner Katie Sinderson will speak on the Practising Law Institute's ("PLI") panel discussing the current landscape of securities litigation and the strategies and tactics on how to current with the ever-changing industry.

Katie is involved in several the firm's practice areas, including securities fraud, corporate governance, and advisory services. Most recently, Katie led the teams that recovered $74 million in the securities class action against SunEdison, $50 million in the securities class action against FleetCor Technologies.

To view more about the event and register, click here.