

Mark Lebovitch Serves as Panelist for Fordham Law School Symposium: "Here to Stay - Wrestling with the Future of the Quickly Maturing SPAC Market"

October 22, 2021

BLB&G Partner Mark Lebovitch served as a panelist for Fordham University School of Law's Symposium: "Here to Stay: Wrestling with the Future of the Quickly Maturing SPAC Market."

Mark, who co-leads the firm's corporate governance litigation practice and is currently leading a number of the firm's cases involving special purpose acquisition companies (SPACs) in Delaware's Court of Chancery, served on a panel that was focused on "Enforcement and Litigation Trends to Reign in Market Excess and Misbehavior."