

BLB&G Partner Mark Lebovitch Will Serve as a Panelist at CII-NYU Corporate Governance Bootcamp on The Role of Institutional Investors in Shareholder Litigation

November 19, 2021

|BLOCK_PICTURE|

|BLOCK_PICTURE|

BLB&G partner Mark Lebovitch will serve as a panelist at CII-NYU Corporate Governance Bootcamp, a premium executive education program developed by the Council of Institutional Investors and New York University School of Law's Institute for Corporate Governance and Finance.

Mark's panel is focused on The Role of Institutional Investors in Shareholder Litigation.

This virtual event is a two-track program, with an introductory session, Bootcamp Basics, for those who are new to corporate governance, and a deeper-dive curriculum to follow for governance professionals with some experience and participants who completed Bootcamp Basics. Instructors include faculty from NYU as well as seasoned practitioners, such as BLB&G partner Mark Lebovitch.