

BLB&G Partner Christopher Orrico Will Serve as a Panelist at The Florida Bar Business Law Section's 39th Annual Federal Securities Institute

February 10, 2022

Partner Christopher Orrico will serve as a panelist at The Florida Bar Business Law Section's 39th Annual Federal Securities Institute. The program consists of leading lawyers, judges, government officials, and investment bankers who will discuss the latest structures and areas of focus in M&A transactions; techniques for raising capital, publicly and privately by smaller companies; recent guidance on ESG, disclosure, accounting and financial reporting; approaches to corporate governance and executive compensation issues; trends in shareholder activism and engagement; private securities litigation and government enforcement actions; the impact of the latest Delaware court decisions and statutory revisions; and ethical issues for corporate lawyers.

Christopher's panel, "Recent Developments in Delaware Law," will discuss the following:

- Caremark Claims
- MAE/Covenants/Specific Performance
- SPAC Litigation
- 203 Challenges in Affiliate Transactions
- Privilege Issues in Acquisitions
- Books and Records Litigation
- Waiver of Appraisal Rights