

Hannah Ross Serves as Panelist at the LATEC Investment Education Symposium

February 22, 2022

Hannah Ross will serve as a panelist at the February 24, 2022 Investment Education Symposium, discussing "Best Practices for Securities Litigation & Portfolio Monitoring for Public Pensions." This event, which is being held in conjunction with the Louisiana Trustee Education Council (LATEC), aims to provide broad education and information on investing, fiduciary responsibility, and selection of money managers to the key decision makers and other representatives of the nation's largest pension funds, endowments, foundations and other institutional investors.
