

BLB&G Partner Mark Lebovitch Serves as Panelist at NYCBA Program, Insurers' and Insureds' Perspectives on Current Issues in D&O Liability 2022

May 23, 2022

On June 17, 2022, BLB&G Partner Mark Lebovitch will serve as a panelist at the NYC Bar Association's program, Insurers' and Insureds' Perspectives on Current Issues in D&O Liability 2022. The program will consist of experienced practitioners who will provide a balanced perspective on present and future exposures facing corporations and their D&Os, the D&O insurance marketplace, and the coverage afforded for these types of claims. In addition, the panels will provide up-to-date commentary on best practices.

Mark's panel, "D&O Liability for ESG Litigations," will discuss the following:

- Environmental Policy Leading to D&O Exposure
- How the "Me Too" and Black Lives Matter Movements are Translating into Corporate and D&O Liabilities
- Hot Topics, including New Claims related to Covid-19, Cannabis
- Where Cyber Claims against D&Os are going
