

BLB&G Partner John Rizio-Hamilton to Speak at Federal Bar Council Event

February 15, 2023

On March 2, 2023, BLB&G Partner John Rizio-Hamilton will feature as a panelist at the “Cutting Edge Topics in Private Securities Litigation” event, presented by the Federal Bar Council. Moderated by the Honorable Jesse M. Furman of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, John and other legal professionals will discuss the latest developments in private securities litigation. The program offers both CLE credit and a networking reception post-discussion.

John Rizio-Hamilton is one of America’s top shareholder litigators. He works on the most complex and high-stakes securities class action cases, and has recovered billions of dollars on behalf of institutional investor clients. For his dedication in the legal field, John was named a “Litigation Trailblazer” by The National Law Journal. He has been recognized as a “Litigation Star” by Benchmark Litigation, and by Law360 as a “Rising Star,” a “Legal MVP,” and one of the country’s “Top Attorneys Under 40.” John is regularly named to lists of leading practitioners by Lawdragon and Thomson Reuters’ Super Lawyers.
