

BLB&G Partner Sal Graziano to Speak at ISS Webinar, “Could 2023 Be a Banner Year for Investor Recoveries? Mid-Year Review: Shareholder Class Actions”

August 3, 2023

On August 15, 2023, BLB&G Partner Sal Graziano will join ISS SCAS Director of Litigation Analysis Jarett Sena at the ISS webinar, “Could 2023 Be a Banner Year for Investor Recoveries? Mid-Year Review: Shareholder Class Actions.” This summer event offers attendees an opportunity to reflect on the year’s important shareholder litigation milestones to date, and to consider how the litigation landscape continues to evolve for institutional investors. The speakers will discuss a variety of topics, including:

- An analysis of 2023 filings and class action settlements in the U.S. and abroad, including securities, antitrust and SEC fair funds
- A review of the mega securities settlements secured so far this year, including Wells Fargo ($1 billion) and Kraft Heinz ($450 million)
- Key trends and developments in the 2023 litigation landscape
- What to expect during the rest of 2023 and beyond

Sal Graziano is widely recognized as one of the top securities litigators in the country. He has served as lead trial counsel in a wide variety of major securities fraud class actions, recovering billions of dollars on behalf of institutional investors and hedge fund clients. He has been honored as one of the nation’s top securities litigators and trial attorneys by Benchmark Litigation (Top 100 Trial Lawyers), Chambers USA (“the go-to for the biggest cases”), Law360 (Securities Litigation and Class Action MVP), Lawdragon (500 Leading Lawyers in America, 500 Leading Plaintiff Financial Lawyers), and the National Law Journal (Trailblazer). Sal currently serves on the firm’s Executive Committee and oversees the firm’s ethics and compliance program, ensuring the highest standards of professional conduct are maintained.