

BLB&G Partner John Rizio-Hamilton to Serve as Panelist at Federal Bar Council Fall Retreat

November 3, 2023

On November 6, 2023, BLB&G Partner John Rizio-Hamilton will speak on cybersecurity at the Federal Bar Council's Fall Retreat. Moderated by Second Circuit Judge William Nardini, John's panel "Cybercrime Update: Fear and Hope!" will cover topics such as the new SEC rules requiring companies to promptly disclose material cybersecurity incidents, and how companies should establish a procedure for compliance with these new disclosure requirements before they experience a breach; and the SEC's new, more aggressive stance toward prosecuting civil securities fraud cases based on misstatements concerning cybersecurity.

John Rizio-Hamilton is one of America's top shareholder litigators. He works on the most complex and high-stakes securities class action cases, and has recovered billions of dollars on behalf of institutional investor clients. John frequently speaks at industry events, including the Federal Bar Council's Cutting Edge Topics in Private Securities Litigation event this past February.
