

Catherine van Kampen and Jim Harrod to Speak at the ABA 2025 ILS Annual Conference

April 21, 2025

BLB&G Managing Director and Senior Counsel Catherine van Kampen, along with Partners Jim Harrod and Tom James, will speak at the American Bar Association's 2025 International Law Section Annual Conference from April 28 to May 1 at The Penn Club in New York.

With the theme of "Adapting to Today's International Legal Challenges," the conference will gather leaders from across the global legal community to examine how artificial intelligence is transforming global compliance and security. Catherine, Jim, and Tom will contribute to panel discussions exploring investor rights in the United States, emerging trends in global class action litigation, and developments in cybersecurity and safety.