

BLB&G Partner Greg Varallo to Participate in Wilmington University Law School Program “Best Practices in the Supreme Court”

January 26, 2026

BLB&G Partner Greg Varallo will participate as a panelist in the program “Best Practices in the Supreme Court” hosted by Wilmington University Law School on January 30. Alongside distinguished professionals, Greg will provide expert guidance on advocating effectively before the Delaware Supreme Court. He will also explore ethical considerations and share practical insights and experiences. The program is tailored for Delaware practitioners and visiting Pro Hac Vice counsel.

Greg is head of the firm’s Delaware office, prosecuting cases in Delaware and nationwide and helping the firm’s clients navigate complex derivative and class actions, business-to-business disputes, fiduciary litigation in bankruptcy court, and alternative dispute resolution. He has litigated hundreds of complex business disputes and has earned a reputation as a leading corporate governance expert and trial lawyer. A prominent thought leader, Greg frequently speaks on corporate governance and securities-related issues and has been published in The Business Lawyer, The Securities Regulation Law Journal, M&A Lawyer, Corporate Governance Advisor, Insights, and Business Law Today.