

BLB&G Special Governance Counsel Mark Lebovitch Speaks at Tulane's 38th Annual Corporate Law Institute

March 25, 2026

BLB&G Special Governance Counsel Mark Lebovitch spoke on the "Delaware Developments" panel at the 38th Annual Tulane Corporate Law Institute on March 19 in New Orleans. He contributed to an engaging discussion on current trends and key issues around corporate governance litigation in the Delaware Court of Chancery.

Mark co-leads BLB&G's Corporate Governance practice, overseeing the firm's prosecution of fiduciary duty litigation against boards of directors, senior executives, and controlling shareholders who engage in corporate misconduct. One of the country's preeminent shareholder advocates, Mark has represented a wide range of stockholders, from public and private institutional investors to hedge funds and individuals, in a long list of groundbreaking lawsuits and appraisal actions. He has led trial teams on some of the most high-profile securities fraud class actions and corporate governance litigations in history, securing billions of dollars for harmed investors and improving corporate governance practices to prevent future abuses of power.
