

BLB&G Partner Jorge Tenreiro Speaks at ILEP March 2026 Symposium

March 30, 2026

BLB&G Partner Jorge Tenreiro moderated a panel titled, “Silencing the Shareholders? Arbitration, Precatory Proposals, and the Privatization of Securities Law” at the March 2026 Symposium hosted by the Institute for Law and Economic Policy on March 13. The panel featured prominent experts, including former SEC officials and a director from the New York City Comptroller’s Office. Jorge led an engaging discussion on evolving federal securities law policies.

Jorge is a leading authority on federal civil litigation, particularly in the crypto asset and cyber sectors. As the former Chief Litigation Counsel at the SEC, Jorge spearheaded groundbreaking cases against high-profile entities like Sam Bankman-Fried, Terraform Labs, and Binance. He also contributes to the legal community as a speaker, lecturer, and active member of professional associations, including the Hispanic National Bar Association’s planning committee and the LGBT Bar Association of Greater New York’s judiciary committee.
