

BLB&G Managing Director and Senior Counsel Catherine van Kampen Speaks at the ABA 2026 ILS Conference

May 15, 2026

BLB&G Managing Director and Senior Counsel Catherine van Kampen was a featured speaker at the American Bar Association's 2026 International Law Section Annual Conference on May 13 in Washington, D.C. She contributed to a CLE panel discussion titled "International Cyber-Exploitation of Children in the Digital Age," assessing the risks that digital technologies pose to children's protection and privacy rights. The conference gathered prominent legal experts and practitioners to engage with topics spanning arbitration, artificial intelligence, corporate law, human rights, international trade, and more.

Catherine manages BLB&G's staff attorneys and has extensive experience in complex litigation and settlement administration. She has earned numerous honors for her international pro bono work advocating for immigrant and refugee women and children, including recognition as a Global Goals Ambassador by the United Nations Association of the USA. Catherine is also an active leader in legal organizations, serving on advisory boards and committees focused on advancing leadership, human rights, and gender equity.
