

BLB&G Partners Anya Freedman and Jorge Tenreiro Examine Latest SEC Regulatory Changes for Public Pension Fiduciaries in Part One of NIRS Webinar Series

September 24, 2026

BLB&G Partners Anya Freedman and Jorge Tenreiro spoke on a webinar panel discussion, “Navigating SEC Regulatory Change: Legal and Governance Tools for Public Pension Funds, Part One,” hosted by the National Institute on Retirement Security (“NIRS”) on September 22. Alongside Rock Center for Corporate Governance Fellow Omid Harraf, Anya and Jorge analyzed recent SEC regulatory developments impacting public pension fiduciaries and provided practical guidance for trustees, executives, chief investment officers, and other fiduciary leaders.

This webinar was the first in a two-part series addressing proactive responses to evolving SEC policies. To learn more and register for the second part in this series, click here.

Anya is based in BLB&G’s Los Angeles office and leads the firm’s Fiduciary and Governance Advisory Group, guiding institutional investor clients on fiduciary law and governance matters. Bringing insights gained from nearly a decade of experience as general counsel to public pension funds investing over $70 billion, Anya helps leaders develop best-in-class policies and make informed strategic decisions on securities and corporate governance litigation.

Jorge is a leading authority in complex federal civil litigations, with an extensive career dedicated to civil litigation and securities enforcement. Based in the firm’s New York office, he previously served as former Chief Litigation Counsel and Senior Trial Counsel for the Division of Enforcement at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission

("SEC"), where he spearheaded a national civil litigation program and led groundbreaking litigations against high-profile entities and individuals such as Sam Bankman-Fried, Terraform Labs, and Binance.