

BLB&G Partner Jonathan Uslaner Examines AI Legal Industry Trends at Association of Business Trial Lawyers Annual Seminar

October 12, 2026

BLB&G Partner Jonathan Uslaner served as a moderator at the 52nd Annual Seminar hosted by the Association of Business Trial Lawyers (ABTL) on October 10 in Carlsbad. Under the theme of “Litigation in 2026: Effective Advocacy in the Age of AI, Fake News, and the Vanishing Attention Span,” Jonathan participated in the panel discussion, “AI Esq.: How AI is Changing Your Practice,” which examined key AI trends shaping the legal industry and their impact on business trial lawyers.

Jonathan represents institutional investor clients in class and direct actions, with a track record of securing record-breaking settlements in high-profile cases, including Bank of America ($2.425 billion) and Wells Fargo ($1 billion). Recognized as a leading voice on class actions and federal securities law, Jonathan contributes articles to Pensions & Investments and SACRS Magazine and a recurring column for Reuters. He is an active member of the ABTL and the Federal Bar Association’s Los Angeles Chapter and Securities Law Section.