

BLB&G Partner Anthony Calvano Discusses Post-SB 21 Developments in Navigating Controlling Shareholders at Berkeley Forum on Corporate Governance

October 14, 2026

BLB&G Partner Anthony Calvano was a featured speaker at the 11th Annual Berkeley Forum on Corporate Governance in San Francisco. He contributed to the panel, “The New Rules for Controlling Shareholders: Balancing Long-Termism and Minority Rights,” addressing critical issues such as evolving minority shareholder protections, fiduciary duties, investor expectations, and managing the dynamics between leadership and accountability in the wake of SB 21, a significant amendment to the Delaware General Corporation Law that could affect investor protections and Delaware’s standing as the leading forum for corporate law.

Read the firm’s in-depth analysis of SB 21 by clicking the link under Related Document.

Anthony serves as a partner in BLB&G’s Delaware office, specializing in corporate governance and shareholder rights litigation. He has extensive experience with fiduciary duty cases, merger-related disputes, and stockholder rights litigation in the Delaware Court of Chancery. In recognition of his achievements, he was named to Lawdragon’s 2026 list of “500 Leading Plaintiff Financial Lawyers.”