BLB&G Partner Anya Freedman to Address Key Regulatory Changes Impacting Fiduciaries at SACRS Fall Conference 2026

November 10, 2026

BLB&G Partner Anya Freedman will be a featured speaker at the State Association of County Retirement Systems (SACRS) 2026 Fall Conference in Rancho Mirage on November 11. As the moderator of the trustee breakout panel, "How to Be a Good Fiduciary in Our Era of Rapid Regulatory Change," she will brief SACRS members on significant federal regulatory changes affecting their investment portfolios and offer practical guidance for fiduciaries.

Anya is based in BLB&G's Los Angeles office and leads the firm's Fiduciary and Governance Advisory Group. She advises institutional investors—including public pension funds, Taft-Hartley funds, and asset managers—on fiduciary law, governance, and portfolio monitoring, equipping them to pursue strategic litigation to recover losses resulting from fraud and other corporate misconduct.

© 2026 Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossmann LLP All Rights Reserved.