

Anya Freedman, Jesse Jensen, and Michael Mathai Analyze Implications of 2024 U.S. Supreme Court Docket in The Nappa Report

May 1, 2025

In the article "Can You 'DIG' It?: Key Takeaways for Public Pension Attorneys from the Three Securities Fraud Cases Before the U.S. Supreme Court in 2024." published by The NAPPA Report, BLB&G Partners Anya Freedman and Jesse Jensen, Senior Counsel Michael Mathai, and Associate Chloe Jasper analyze the implications of the U.S. Supreme Court's 2024 docket, which featured three pivotal securities fraud cases involving Macquarie, Facebook, and NVIDIA that have captured the attention of institutional investors and their counsel.

The article explores the litigation issues at stake in these cases and examines the strategic involvement of public pension funds in influencing the court's decisions. The authors offer practical insights for public pension funds and their advisors, emphasizing the importance of continued vigilance and collaborative advocacy and opportunities to reassess and strengthen their governance strategies.