

BLB&G Partner Greg Varallo Featured in April 2026 Edition of Delaware Journal of Corporate Law

April 24, 2026

BLB&G Partner Greg Varallo contributed to the article “Optimizing Delaware’s Corporate Law Amendment Process: Ideas for the Next 20 Years” in the April 2026 edition of The Delaware Journal of Corporate Law. The article analyzes Delaware’s approach to corporate law amendments in light of recent changes to the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (DGCL). It examines the historical evolution and influence of DGCL amendments since 1967, evaluates challenges arising from recent Market Practice and DExit amendments, and explores amendment strategies that safeguard Delaware’s status as the leading authority in corporate law.

Greg is head of the firm’s Delaware office, prosecuting cases in Delaware and nationwide and helping the firm’s clients navigate complex derivative and class actions, business-to-business disputes, fiduciary litigation in bankruptcy court, and alternative dispute resolution. He has litigated hundreds of complex business disputes and has earned a reputation as a leading corporate governance expert and trial lawyer. A prominent thought leader, Greg frequently speaks on corporate governance and securities-related issues and has been published in The Business Lawyer, The Securities Regulation Law Journal, M&A Lawyer, Corporate Governance Advisor, Insights, and Business Law Today.
