August, 2013

According to ISS's Securities Class Action Services ("SCAS") recent release of the "Top 100 Settlements Semi-Annual Report," BLB&G remains alone at the top in obtaining the highest number of top recoveries.

The report's inclusion of the $2.425 billion mega-settlement obtained by BLB&G in In re Bank of America Securities litigation, has widened the margin between BLB&G and its competitors. Having recovered well over a third of all the money represented in the report (nearly $21.5 billion – billions more than the nearest competitor), and having prosecuted nearly a third of all the recoveries on the list (32 – far more than any other firm), BLB&G remains the clear leader in the field.
