

Partner Rebecca Boon Profiled in "The Daily Docket," a newsletter by Reuters and Westlaw

January 2021

Partner Rebecca Boon was recently profiled in "The Daily Docket" newsletter. The profile is titled, "For new Bernstein Litowitz partner, a chance to address #MeToo through litigation," and the article explores the unexpected paths of Rebecca's career that led her to become a partner at BLB&G while fighting for important social justice issues as a securities litigator.

"To be able to advocate on behalf of our investor clients while also addressing these kinds of social ills that our country is faced with currently is really, frankly, my life's dream," says Rebecca.

To read the full article as originally published by "The Daily Docket, download the PDF below. To subscribe to the newsletter, click here.