BLB&G partner Rebecca Boon was quoted in a recent Bloomberg Law column discussing the ongoing investigation of New York Governor Andrew Cuomo being conducted by Davis Polk & Wardwall.

"It could be an important pre-existing relationship or because it's a business generator," says Rebecca Boon, a securities partner at Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossmann who's garnered recognition in the shareholder/MeToo litigation arena, including leading a major shareholder suit against Fox News. "It used to be that Debevoise was the go-to firm for this type of work, but now many other firms are going into it."
