

The New York Law Journal Highlights Max Berger's Endowment of Columbia Law School's Public Interest/Public Service Fellows Program

December 1, 2021

New York Law Journal

The New York Law Journal recently highlighted BLB&G founding partner Max Berger's recent endowment of Columbia Law School's Public Interest/Public Service (PI/PS) Fellows Program. The article also dives into Max's background, his successes, and his reasoning for wanting to give back — he believes giving back to the law school was his obligation since it was so instrumental in his success.

The Columbia Law School article on Max's endowment is accessible here.